Treasurers Report

- Summer Fete raised approx £2235
- The £30 cake float has now been sorted out
- The fee from Barclays for being overdrawn in one of the accounts has been paid personally by John W.
- John W has stated that he will stand down as Treasurer at the end of his term.
- There are no requests for funds currently although Sharon H thought that the Nursery playground painting would need to be funded by the PTA.

Chairpersons Report

Auction of Promises

- Despite poor attendance the event raised approx £1400. A thank you to Sally A-D and all others that assisted and donated.

Summer fete

- Despite the weather the fete was a success and another big thank you to all who assisted and supported this event.

Ladies Night (7th October 2004)

- Wendy S ran through early plans and suggestions were given.
- Sharon H to supply and info she has regarding previously attended events.

Year 6 BBQ

- PTA to provide food and drinks for this event. Numbers = 45

Christmas Bazaar

- Steph B requested that someone else be in overall charge of this event to provide variety and experience to other PTA members. A committee is required.
- Steph B gave info on the various options for a photographer to attend and it was agreed to go ahead with ????????

Head teachers Report

Library

- Mrs Thomas explained the plan for the computerized library. The project was discussed and the PTA agreed that the quote of £2200 would be acceptable. This covers the licenses, software and thumb-print equipment, but it does not include the desk area which will need to be built. John W requested copies of any information and a request for funds form.

Mrs Westerman-Childs thanked the PTA on behalf of the teachers and school for agreeing to fund this part of the library project, and for the money towards the Nursery and Pine furniture. She said how lovely and pleased everybody was. She also said goodbye as this was her last meeting.

Any other Business

Horseshoe Lake Family Event

- Very early discussions regarding a Family Event were held. Everyone agreed it was a good idea and it will be discussed at a further date.
- John W requested a date for the PTA AGM – date set for 20th October 2004 with a PTA meeting set for immediately held by the new committee.

Meeting concluded at 8.20 pm

Next meeting – Wednesday 8th September 2004, in staff room at 7.30 pm
